

Sara and her siblings were playing Monopoly before dinner. Each got to pick their favorite game piece when they started. During the game, each managed to build on their best property before they were called to dinner. From this information and the clues provided, determine what their best property was, what they built on it, and what their favorite game piece was.

- The players were Rick, the player who used the dog game piece, and Sara.
- Sara had more houses built than the owner of the Bond Street property.
- The player who built 2 houses used the top hat game piece.
- The player who owned the Piccadilly property had two houses built on it.
- One of the girls used the car piece.
