

Film Festival - Logic Puzzle

Every 4 years, filmmakers from around the globe compete at the Sugartown Film Festival. In preparation for this years festival, Ann was tasked with picking out some of the best films from the first five festivals. Help Ann by figuring out which year the film debuted, the name of the director, the award the film won in and what country the director was from.

1. The director whose film won the prize in Best Sound is either Jessica Tandem or Liza Nemellie.
2. The director whose film won a prize in 1978 isn't from Germany.
3. The Director from The United States won the prize for Best Actor.
4. Of the film that won the prize in Best Short and the director from Mexico, one is Sally Felds and the other won in 1982.
5. Elizabeth Sho won her prize 4 years after the director from Finland.
6. Liza Nemellie is either the winner from Austria or the director who won the award for the Best Documentary.
7. The director whose award was for Best Actor won 12 years before the winner in the Best Documentary category.
8. The film that took the award in the Best Short category won the award after the director from Finland.
9. Jessica Tandem won in 1982.

		Director					Category					Country
		Elizabeth Sho	Jessica Tandem	Liza Nemellie	Norman Wockre	Sally Felds	Best Actor	Best Director	Best Documentary	Best Short	Best Sound	Austria	Germany	Finland	Mexico	United States
Year	1966
	1970
	1974
	1978
	1982
Country	Austria
	Germany
	Finland
	Mexico
	United State
Category	Best Actor
	Best Directo
	Best Docume
	Best Short
	Best Sound

Year	Director	Category	Country
1966
1970
1974
1978
1982

play more logic puzzles on ahapuzzles.com/logic-puzzles