

Nearly Forgotten Valentines - Logic Puzzle

Oh, no! Jorge, Karl and Eric have forgotten about Valentine's Day and it's the 13th of February. Each has had to buy a last-minute gift, wrapped in a different colored paper, for his girlfriend, fiancée, or wife. From this information and the clues provided, determine the name of his girlfriend, fiancée, or wife, the gift he bought her and the color of the wrapping paper.

1. No man has the same first initial as his girlfriend, fiancée, or wife.
2. A delighted wife received a gift wrapped in purple.
3. Neither Ellen nor Joanne received perfume.
4. The roses were wrapped in green.
5. Ellen's gift was wrapped in the same color she chose for her brides maids dresses.
6. Eric's girlfriend adored the perfume he bought for her.
