In a magazine article, three popular TV personalities talk about their time in college, studying for careers that they never pursued after getting into television. From this information and the following clues, for each personality, can you determine their full name, their TV job, and the area in which they studied?

1. Ms. Knight, who wasn't trained as a teacher, was an actress in the film "Magic".

2. Laura is a news anchor.

3. Susan Niven never had any ambition to be a nurse.

4. It isn't the one time student teacher who now presents current affairs programs.
