

Three Friends - Logic Puzzle

This is the story of a friend named Jo, a friend named Sally and a friend named Flo. Today, of all days, was their lucky day when some sweepstakes prize money came their way. The money was an unexpected boon 'cause one of them was getting married soon. Together they went shopping, and to see what they could buy on a spending spree. Each had a sum of five hundred dollars to spend as they wished on their hopping rounds. Sally spent most, with very little change and the others came close in the spending range. From this information and the following clues, for each friend, can you determine from which fashion house they made their purchase, the color of their ensemble and the cost?

1. Chantelle's Boutique offered less than $140.00 change on the purchase made there.
2. The pink ensemble came from Cinderella Fashions.
3. Flo was not getting married.
4. Pale Blue was Jo's color choice.
