

Where in the World? - Logic Puzzle

Five college friends start talking about where they were born. It turns out that all of them were born into military families. Figure out who was born where and to what branch of the military.

1. Both Josh and the person with the last name of Vale have never been to Europe.
2. The Howard and Gibbson families dislike each other because one is Air Force and the other is Army.
3. Anna Weaver was born in England and her family weren't Marines.
4. The person born in Florida was the child of a Coast Guard.
5. The Howards always start their children's name with a J.
6. Melony Gibbson is from Germany and plans to follow her father's steps in the Army.
7. Joy's first and last name have the same number of letters, and the first letter of her last name is shared with her birth place.
